A physically challenged person, a state and national level wheelchair basketball player and swimmer, who truly believes in making a difference and giving back to the community.

Malathi is a wheelchair user who is paralyzed below the waist. She is a zonal level wheelchair basketball player, a state and national level swimmer, who truly believes in making a difference and giving back to the community. They say A Thousand Miles journey begins with a small step – and Malathi's started in a Child Home where she was supported, till X Standard.

At the age of 14, in a manner of speaking, ironically, she was reintroduced to her parents. Unfortunately, fate had other ideas, with a Father who suffered a severe memory loss condition, it fell upon her young shoulders to support her family financially and pursue her Higher Secondary Education from a hostel, the circumstances only see me tougher more towards a life she had dared to dream for herself. Miles fell by as she graduated out of Madras University in the year 2006, ready to take on the world.

In a world full of opportunities and challenges in equal measure she built her confidence brick by brick– Working her way through jobs with Call Center sand for a short period of time ran her own shop — A Consultancy firm where she engaged and produced opportunities to over 650 candidates. An eventful meeting with well-wishers translated to her joining Barclays in the year 2016, which finally set her on course to a higher arc of performance. A window to a new world of Values and Vision beckoned, one that encouraged her to Dream– and Dream BIG. And dream big she did, focusing on her passion for Wheel Chair Basketball and swimming over the years she strung up a chain of achievements in these fields.

She has raised ₹.5 lakhs for co-players to purchase wheelchairs, funding from Actor Mr. KAMALA HAASAN. She has supported financially and materially many people across South India during this COVID-19 Pandemic.

In 2021 she has started Yathumagi Tours and Travels that aims to provide job opportunities for women and physically challenged people, budget friendly tour packages for lower and middle class income groups and to enable elderly and physically challenged people to travel with ease and see places making their dream come true.
